During the evening several games of rook were enjoyed.

Mr. Alley and family recently moved from Anderson to West Union, where they are residing.

—This is the year to buy an International riding cultivator. W. M. Brown, Walhalla, sells them at reduced prices.—adv.

—W. O. White was in Rock Hill for several days last week, attending the Winthrop pageant, at the same time visiting his daughter, Miss Eunice, who is a student at Winthrop. Mr. White had a most enjoyable trip, meeting a number of former Walhalla people, among them Sidney Adams and Rietje Biemann.

—The many friends of J. R. Plyler are pleased to see him in Walhalla again, after an absence of some time. He has been a member of the faculty of Long Creek Academy since he was "legislated out of office" as attendance officer for Oconee. The Long Creek Academy last week closed a very successful session.

—Mrs. Ola Burton, wife of W. H. Burton, of Walhalla Route 3, died on April 21th, after a brief illness. The body was interred in the cemetery of Fairview church on the 25th, after funeral services conducted by Rev. H. B. Hardy, of Seneca. Mrs. Burton was a consistent member of Fairview Methodist church and was a consecrated Christian who will be greatly missed in the home and in the church and by a wide circle of friends in her home community. Before marriage she was Miss Ola Bowen, of Anderson county. She is survived by her husband and four children, three boys and one girl, all of whom are at home, and by her mother, Mrs. M. E. Hicks, who had been living at the Burton home with her daughter. There are many who will join with us in extending to the bereaved ones sympathy in their sorrow.

—The attraction at The Star Theatre for Thursday (to-morrow) is beautiful Edith Roberts, in "The Unknown Wife." On Tuesday of next week, May 17, the charming Ethel Clayton will be the attraction in "The Ladder of Lies." If you like good pictures see these two. Manager James Wilson has announced that after this week his theatre will be open only three times a week—Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. He has been compelled to take this step owing to the falling off in his receipts. Unusually good pictures have been run by The Star Theatre, and there will be many lovers of the silent drama who will regret the fact that necessity compelled the closing of the theatre for more than three days a week. Manager Wilson will resume the nightly schedule when he feels that the patronage is such as to justify it.

—Chas. G. Burley, of Walhalla R. E. D. No. 1, is at Clemson taking a special agricultural course. Mr. Burley is one of our progressive young farmers and is using some very advanced methods in his farm work near Walhalla. We are glad to note that he is seeking further scientific knowledge to apply to his agricultural pursuits. Mr. Burley has been for several years in the West, where he absorbed much from practical and intimate association with agriculture. We regard him as one of our best informed young farmers, and his trip to Clemson for the purpose of acquiring other knowledge is evidence of the truth of the oft made remark that one must first know enough to realize one's need of continuing to learn. The fellow who thinks he "knows it all" most likely has hard to convince him of that fact.

—The best is the cheapest, and that is the Willard. Hughes Garage, Walhalla.—adv.

—Keep a watch for the Redpath Chautauqua announcements, which will appear in The Courier from week to week until May 26th, when one of the finest entertainments that has ever been brought to Walhalla will begin. The entertainments will be daily and nightly from the 26th to the 31st of this month. The management states that they will not be positive that every feature of the Chautauqua this year will be superior to last year, but if it is possible it will be. Some of the finest talent employed by this great entertainment organization has been allotted to Walhalla this year. There is but one Redpath Chautauqua organization, though there are others with names similar enough to become confused in the minds of some with it. It was the Redpath Chautauqua that captivated the people of Walhalla and Oconee last year. It will be the Redpath people who will visit Walhalla this month. Just keep these facts well in your mind. No one is ever "stung" on a Redpath production.

—Others have been tried and found wanting. The Willard battery never fails. Hughes Garage, Walhalla.—adv.

—Mrs. C. O. Williams, of Columbia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Brown.

—Mrs. Cleveland McKenzie, of Asheville, N. C., has been spending a few days in Walhalla with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Alexander. She was joined Sunday by Mr. McKenzie, who spent the week-end here.

—Married, on Sunday, May 8th, Miss Zonie Kelley and Frank Reid, both of Walhalla. The young couple have the good wishes of a host of friends. The ceremony was performed by James H. Huanleutt, notary public.

—"Sand," the illiteracy play, will be presented at the Seneca High School Auditorium on Friday evening, May 13th, at 8 o'clock. The proceeds will go to the support of an organizer of adult school for illiterates in Oconee county.

—Miss Eva Cleveland, of Bridgeport, Conn., stopped over in Walhalla with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Grant the past week. She was on her way to visit relatives at Highlands, N. C., where she will remain until June 1st, when she will return to her home in Bridgeport.

—Prof. W. S. Morrison, of Clemson College, will be at the Salem Methodist church on Sunday afternoon, May 15th, at 3.30 o'clock and will deliver an address on "Christian Education." On Sunday, May 22d, Prof. Morrison will speak at Double Springs. The public is cordially invited to attend both these lectures.

—Sam Bearden, of near Richland, is again carrying his watch, which he found a few days ago in the field where he lost it while at work in the fall of 1919. The watch was plowed under and stayed in the ground for eighteen months. It looks to be in as good condition and runs as well as it did at the time it was lost. The watch is an Elgin, fifteen-jewel movement, the works being "housed" in a 20-year gold filled case.

—It will be decidedly to the advantage of all to purchase season tickets for the Redpath Chautauqua, Walhalla, May 26th to 31st, inclusive. The price of the season tickets is $2.75. Some of the single attractions cost almost half the price of a season ticket. Get your tickets as soon as they are put on sale. B. F. Armstrong, the 21-day advance agent for the Chautauqua, was in Walhalla last week, and he assures us that the 1921 Chautauqua program is better, if possible, than was the 1920 program.

—Frank Petty's home in the Oak Grove section was totally destroyed by fire last Monday morning. Mr. Petty was in Walhalla at the time of the blaze, only his wife and children being at the house. Nothing was saved from the building, and no insurance was carried. The family were getting ready to move into a new home, which Mr. Petty had just erected, but nothing had been moved to the new place when the fire occurred. The loss in household goods and provisions was considerable, as Mrs. Petty and the children were unable to do anything toward saving things from the building after the flames were first noticed.

—Considering the great and effective work that has already been accomplished by the Salvation Army, and realizing the increasing burden and demand for extended services, Walhalla has been asked to raise a reasonable sum of money for the maintenance of this work. On Saturday, May 21st, an intensive appeal will be made to the people of Walhalla, and, depending upon the unique interest for this great and most worthy cause, it is expected that the response will be most gratifying. We need the Salvation Army activities in Oconee county, and it is a duty and a privilege of every citizen, who is able to contribute, to come to the rescue of this most worthy cause.

—The Woman's Auxiliary of the Walhalla Presbyterian church held a reception in the church parlors last Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Frances Stribling, the beloved missionary to China, who went to the mission field from this church. An entertaining and impressive program had been arranged. There were vocal selections by Mesdames Garney and Julian Dendy, which were beautifully rendered. A pageant was presented by the boys and girls of the Junior department of the Sunday school. This feature added much to the occasion, the young people acquitting themselves with great credit. Mrs. F. E. Harrison read an interesting letter from Miss Stribling, addressed to the ladies of the church, which was greatly appreciated. The program completed, material for making dainty needle-books was distributed among the ladies, and for more than an hour all were busily engaged with needle and scissors. The articles made will be sent to Miss Stribling to be used by her as Christmas gifts for the Chinese girls in whom she is so deeply interested. During the informal part of the afternoon delicious sandwiches and iced tea were served by the young girls of the Sunday school. This gathering in honor of Miss Stribling has been held annually since her departure, by the ladies of this church, who cherish an abiding interest in her and her work, and feel honored that one of their number, in the prime and beauty of young womanhood, has given herself to the noble cause of education in China.

L. BLUMENTHAL, WESTMINSTER, S. C.

Blumenthal, of Westminster, both of whom are making some extraordinarily attractive offerings. Other announcements of special interest are the bank statements of the banks of Oconee, among which will be noted that of the Bank of West Union. This is the first statement published by the new bank, which began business Jan. 1, 1921. At the close of business April 28th, the new bank's total figures show at $109,948.67—a remarkably good showing, we think, for an institution of only four months' activity. The Bank of West Union is proving a great convenience to many people and is supplying a need that has been long felt by the citizens of our little neighbor town.

—The many friends of Mrs. J. T. Miller, of Greenville, will regret to learn of her death, which occurred in that city on Friday, May 6. Mrs. Miller was well known in Oconee, having been before marriage Miss Sallie Beatty. She was born at Iva, Anderson county, but moved when quite young to Oconee, and lived in this county for about forty years. She was married in 1892 to J. T. Miller, and to this union one child was born, who is now Mrs. Haskell Phillips, of Greenville. Mrs. Miller was in her 69th year, having been born Nov. 27th, 1852. She had been in failing health for some time, and her death was not unexpected. She is survived by her husband and daughter, Mrs. Phillips above mentioned, and four step-children—Mrs. J. C. Knox, of West Union; Mrs. Paul Ballenger, of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Milburn Smith, of Eastalton, Ga.; and Archelus Miller, of West Union. One brother, J. M. Beatty, of Walhalla, survives to mourn her death. Besides these there are numerous others to sorrow at her passing. The Courier joins with hosts of friends of the deceased in extending to the bereaved ones sincere sympathy in their sorrow. Mrs. Miller was a most excellent woman, and will be sorely missed in the home and by a wide circle of friends.

—Memorial Day was fittingly observed by the people of Walhalla yesterday morning, when a large assemblage gathered at the High School Auditorium. Speeches were made by W. A. Strother, Capt. S. K. Dendy and M. R. McDonald. Mrs. Wade C. Hughes sang most beautifully "The Homespun Gown," and little Elizabeth Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Hughes, recited most touchingly "The Conquered Banner." She was accompanied softly on the piano by Miss Rhodes, music instructor at the Walhalla High School. "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" was sung by a male chorus. At the close of the exercises the children of the school went in a body to the different cem-eries to place floral offerings on the graves of the Confederate dead. As they reached the Confederate monument in Main street they strewed flowers at its base. The monument had been beautifully decorated with the Confederate colors. A touching incident occurred at the Lutheran cemetery when Mrs. J. W. Rankin, at the request of Capt. S. K. Dendy, placed flowers on the graves of two Union soldiers whose bodies rest in St. John's, thus showing that in the graves of these brave men who fought for what they considered right is buried all feeling of enmity and animosity.

—At the meeting of the members of the General Assembly with the County Supervisor and his board of advisers last Friday it was agreed by the Assembly members that they would make arrangements for the securing of thirty thousand dollars additional, to be added to the general funds of the county, but not applicable to the road funds entirely. It was pointed out by Supervisor Shockley, we are informed, that the amount specified, after retaining for the different funds sufficient amounts to meet ordinary expenses, there will be little left of the $30,000 for the prosecution of road work. Mr. Shockley figured it out that he could possibly operate the chain gang and do road work during May and June on the balance that will be left of the $30,000 after meeting the other demands on this fund, and that after the close of next month he will very likely have to "close up shop." The situation is very much as it has been for some time, and plans laid will have to be curtailed this year to an uncomfortable extent. However, Mr. Shockley has stated to friends that he intends to do the very best he can for as much territory as possible in various sections of the county while the limited funds that will be at his command hold out. We understand that Representative Bruce was in favor of naming $50,000 as the sum to provide for the Supervisor, but Messrs. Mason and Dalton favored holding the amount down to $30,000 and that was the sum designated as making efforts to secure, this to be for addition to funds for general purposes.
